The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 29, to Saturday April 2, 1763.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION,
For a Publick Thanksgiving.

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS it hath pleased Almighty God, in His great Goodness, to put an End to the late bloody and expensive War, in which We were engaged, against his Most Christian Majesty the French King, and his Catholick Majesty the King of Spain, by the Conclusion of a Just and Honourable Peace between Us, and his said Most Christian Majesty the French King, and his Catholick Majesty, upon such a Foundation, as, by the Blessing of God, may prove effectual to procure a firm and lasting Tranquility to Us and Our Subjects; We therefore, adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering, that such Great and Publick Blessings do call for Publick and Solemn Acknowledgments, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby Appointing and Commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be observed throughout England, Wales, and the Town of Berwick upon Tweed, on Thursday the Fifth Day of May next; And, for the better and more orderly Solemnizing the same, We have given Directions to the Most Reverend the Archbishops, and the Right Reverend the Bishops of England, to compose a Form of Prayer suitable to this Occasion, to be used in all Churches and Chapels, and other Places of Publick Worship, and to take Care for the timely Dispersing of the same throughout their respective Dioceses: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Publick Day of Thanksgiving be Religiously observed by all Our loving Subjects, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and upon Pain of Suffering such Punishment as We can justly inflict upon all such who shall contemn or neglect the same.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the 30th Day of March, 1763, in the Third Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

By the KING,
A PROCLAMATION.
For a Publick Thanksgiving.

GEORGE R.

WHereas it hath pleased Almighty God, in His great Goodness, to put an End to the late bloody and expensive War, in which We were engaged against his most Christian Majesty the French King, and his Catholick Majesty the King of Spain, by the Conclusion of a Just and Honourable Peace between Us and his said most Christian Majesty the French King, and his Catholick Majesty, upon such a Foundation, as, by the Blessing of God, may prove effectual to procure a firm and lasting Tranquillity to Us and Our Subjects; We therefore adoring the Divine Goodness, and duly considering, that such Great and Publick Blessings, do call for Publick and Solemn Acknowledgments, have thought fit, by the Advice of Our Privy-Council, to issue this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby Appointing and Commanding, That a General Thanksgiving to Almighty God, for these His Mercies, be observed throughout that Part of Our Kingdom of Great Britain called Scotland, upon Thursday the Fifth Day of May next: And We do strictly charge and command, that the said Publick Thanksgiving be reverendly and decently observed by all Our loving Subjects in Scotland, on the said Fifth Day of May next, as they tender the Favour of Almighty God, and would avoid His Wrath and Indignation, and upon Pain of such Punishment as We may justly inflict on all such as contemn or neglect the Performance of so Religious a Duty: Our Will and Pleasure is therefore, and We charge, that incontinent, this Our Proclamation seen, ye pass to the Market Cross of Edinburgh, and all other Places needful, and there, in Our Name and Authority, make Publication thereof, that none pretend Ignorance. And Our Will and Pleasure is, That Our Solicitor do cause printed Copies hereof to be sent to the Sheriffs of the several Shires, Stewarts of Stewarties, and Bailiffs of Regalities, and their Clerks, whom We ordain to see the same published: And We appoint them to send Doubles thereof to the several Paroch-Kirks within their Bounds, That upon the Lord's-Day immediately preceding the Day above-mentioned, the same may be published and read from the Pulpits, immediately after Divine Service.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the 30th Day of March, 1763, in the Third Year of Our Reign.

GOD Save the KING.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 30th Day of March, 1763,

PRESENT,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

INformation having been given to His Majesty at this Board on the 14th of February last, of a Contagious Distemper raging amongst the Horned Cattle in Denmark, and some Parts of Germany — His Majesty judged it necessary, for preventing the said Contagion from being brought into these Kingdoms by the Hides of such distempered Cattle, to require and direct, by His Order in Council of that Day's Date, that no Entry should be passed for the Hides of Horned Cattle either Raw or Salted, which were then, or might thereafter be brought from the Places aforementioned, either directly, or by the Way of Holland, into any of the Ports of Great Britain or Ireland, until His Majesty's Pleasure should be further signified.—And whereas His Majesty hath this Day received Information, that the said Distemper hath broke out with great Violence amongst the Horned Cattle in Sweden, in the Province of Schonen, about Malmoe, and at several Villages to the North-Eastward of Helsenborg;—His Majesty doth therefore hereby order, with the Advice of His Privy Council, that the Directions contained in the aforementioned Order of Council, for putting a Stop to the passing of Entries for Hides coming from Denmark and Germany, be extended to all Raw or Salted Hides coming from any of the Ports belonging to the Kingdom of Sweden into the Ports of Great Britain or Ireland.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lord Lieutenant of His Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

W. Sharpe.

Moſcow, February 14, N. S. The Baron de Breteuil leaves this Country the Beginning of April. He returns to Paris before he ſets out upon his Embaſſy to Sweden. Count Caunitz leaves Moſcow To-morrow upon his Return to Vienna.

Ratiſbon, March 3. They write from Bareuth, that the Margrave died there in the Night between the 26th and 27th of laſt Month; and that Baron de Ellrod ſet out the next Day for Wanſbeck near Hambourg, where the Margrave Frederick Chriſtian, Succeſſor of the late Prince, now reſides, to concert with his Highneſs what is neceſſary in order to his Taking Poſſeſſion of the States devolved to him by the Death of the Prince above mentioned.

Warſaw, March 5. The King of Poland has kept his Chamber ever ſince his Illneſs.

This being the Name-day of his Poliſh Majeſty, it will be celebrated with all poſſible Demonſtrations of Joy; and a magnificent Fire-work will be played off in the Evening before the Palace.

Vienna, March 9. The Day before Yeſterday, Yeſterday, and To-day, have been obſerved as Thankſgiving Days for the Peace; and To-morrow Te Deum will be ſung in the Cathedral, under the Diſcharge of the Artillery of our Ramparts. The Pruſſian Artillery found in Glatz is tranſporting little by little from hence, to be delivered up with that Fortreſs to his Pruſſian Majeſty. The Imperial Regiments have begun their March to the Quarters aſſigned them.

Vienna, March 12. Their Imperial Majeſties, accompanied by the Arch-dukes and Du cheſſes, aſſiſted at the Te Deum which was ſung the 10th of this Month in the Cathedral Church, on the Reeſtabliſhment of the Peace. The Pruſſian Officers, Priſoners of War, who were at Crems, and other Places, are arrived here, and were admitted that Day to congratulate the Empreſs Queen on the Peace, and to kiſs her Majeſty's Hand. They were treated with great Diſtinction, and Civility. The Letters from Warſaw ſay, the King of Poland continues to be indiſpoſed.

Nuremberg, March 12. The Army of the Empire are actually ſeparated. The Contingents of Paſſau and Ratiſbon, as well as the Regiments of Suabia, marched the 9th upon their Return home. The Contingents of Franconia are alſo in March.

According to a Concluſum made by the Diet of Franconia, their Troops will continue to receive Pay till the 1ſt of April next, when Half of them will be diſcharged, as well as great Part of the Commiſſaries, Officers of Artillery, &c.

The Count of Solms, who commands the Saxons, has informed the Diet of the Circle of Franconia by Letter, that he has received Orders from his Court to return home with the Troops under his Command, and that he intends to begin his March the 14th at lateſt, in four Columns.

By Advice from Wansbeck, we hear, the preſent Margrave of Bareuth is ſo ill there, that it is uncertain when his Highneſs will arrive at Bareuth.

Nuremberg, March 15. The Troops of Saxe Meiningen, that were in the Army of the Empire, have in their Way Home been diſarmed, and carried Priſoners to Cobourg, by the Troops of the Dukes of Saxe Gotha, Cobourg, and Hildbourghauſen. The ſaid Dukes ſtill inſiſt upon Exerciſing the joint Guardianſhip of Meiningen; however it is hoped, that this Affair will ſoon be terminated in an amicable Manner.

The Duke of Saxe Cobourg has ſent Baron Schlammerſdorff as his Miniſter to the Diet of Franconia, to take Care of the Intereſts of the Saxon Houſes in this Affair of Meiningen.

Copenhagen, March 5. On the 3d Inſtant was performed the annual Ceremony of Opening the High Court of Juſtice; but the King of Denmark did not aſſiſt at it in Perſon, as uſual, having been prevented by ſome Indiſpoſition. This however was of no long Continuance, and happily proved of so little Consequence, that his Danish Majesty held a Council Yesterday, and dined in Publick.

Copenhagen, March 8. There is certain Information, that the Sickness among the Cattle is broken out, with great Violence, in Sweden in the Province of Schonen, about Malmoe, and at several Villages to the North-Eastward of Helsenborg.

Copenhagen, March 19. To-morrow the Court goes into Mourning for Three Weeks for the Margrave of Bareuth, the Bishop of Liege, and the Duke of Saxe-Meinungen.

Berlin, March 15. Baron de Knyphausen, late Minister in England, passed through this Place last Sunday, in his Way to Torgau, where he expected to meet the King his Master as Yesterday, who, it is said, sets out from thence this Day for Silesia; and Preparations are making for his Reception here about the Beginning of next Month.

About two Days ago a large Train of Artillery arrived here from Saxony, and was immediately conducted to the Arsenal. Last Monday the Court went into Mourning, for three Months, for the late Marg ave of Brandenbourg Bareuth.

Berlin, March 19. His Prussian Majesty paid a Visit to the Prince and Princess Royal of Saxony at Moritzbourg, a Hunting Seat of the King of Poland; and the next Day, the 16th, set out for Silesia.

His Royal Highness the Prince of Prussia arrived here the 16th in the Evening, and was met at some Distance from the Town by several Companies of Burghers on Horseback, and conducted to the Palace with great Demonstrations of Joy.

Hague, March 15. The French have actually evacuated the Prussian Dominions, which are again in the Power of their Sovereign; and the Regular Troops which are to garrison the Towns, are in full March for the Lower Rhine.

The King of Prussia is in Silesia.

Hague, March 22. The Austrian Troops, which are to be quartered in the Netherlands, are upon their March thither.

Hague, March 25. All the British Troops are actually embarked, and Lieutenant-General Conway, having settled every Thing relative to that Service in this Country, sets out To morrow Morning for England.

Hague, March 29. The King of Prussia is expected at Potzdam from Silesia in the Beginning of next Month; after which that Prince is said to intend Visiting his Territories on that Side, and from thence to proceed to Pomerania, and Prussia.

Admiralty Office, March 30.

PUrsuant to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, that Information has been sent to this Office, That on the 18th Instant, the Sloop Justitia, of and for Gottenburgh, from Bourdeaux, of the Burthen of about 100 Tons, laden with Wine and Brandy, whereof Andres Awberg was late Master, was forced into Carmarthen Bay in South Wales, where she lost her Topmast, and struck on the Ground; and having before, in bad Weather, lost the Bowsprit, the Crew were obliged to quit her, and take to the Boat, which was afterwards, by the Roughness of the Sea, overset, and the Master and Seven of the Men were drowned; but the Ship has been brought into Tenty Peir, by the Officers of the Customs.
